

Door Security Procedures Course aim

This programme is specifically designed for people working in or seeking to work in Door Security. As a doorman or woman in a night club or pub in Ireland then you must have a Door Supervisor licence from the Private Security Authority (PSA). In order to apply for a Door Supervisor licence you must complete a Door Security Procedures (DSP) training course.

Who should apply

New and existing security officers.

All students attending the course must have with them:

- Two recent passport size photographs (less than 1 year old and signed on the back)
- PPS Number
- Proof of address

Course Content

The course content is as per the FETAC Module Descriptor (Guarding Skills Level 4 - 4N1114). It is broken down into four units:

- Unit 1: Duties and Responsibilities
- Unit 2: Fire Prevention and Safety Procedures
- Unit 3: Practical and Emergency Procedures There are two skills demonstrations that each candidate must complete.

Each candidate must complete 4 specific practical skills related to workplace familiarisation. There is also a practical examination at the end of the course. The examination will be based on specific learning outcomes and will be one hour in duration. The format of the examination is 40 short answer questions using the tick or cross method. 1 mark each.

- Role and Responsibilities of the Security Officer
- Searching - (Right of Search)
- Patrolling
- Access Control
- Fire Awareness
- Security and Emergency Systems
- Health and Safety - (Company and Employee Responsibilities)
- The Law - (Dealing with children, The court system)
- Emergencies
- Communications and Reporting
- Customer Care and Social Skills
- Insurance

What is included?

- FETAC Level 4 minor award Certificate. (No hidden certification charges!)
- Letter in a prescribed manner which enables licence application.
- All course handouts including course manual.