

Health & Safety Awareness

Course Aim:

This course is designed to provide the participants with the knowledge of their own responsibilities with regard to health & safety in the workplace.

Course Objectives:

On completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- ✓ Identify their responsibilities with regard to health & safety in the workplace.
- ✓ Understand the importance of communication between management and the employees.
- ✓ Understand the importance and their role in the Company Safety Statement.
- ✓ Identify Fire Hazards and safety precautions to be taken.

Course Programme:

- ✓ Discuss the employee responsibilities of the Safety, Health and Welfare at Work Act, 2005.
- ✓ Evaluate the requirement of the 2007 General Application Regulations on the employee.
- ✓ Discuss the employee role in regard to Safety Statements and what is contained within.
- ✓ Evaluate the employee's role in hazard identification and risk assessment.
- ✓ Identify and be aware of the hazards associated with chemicals.

Who Should Attend:

This course is useful to all members of staff and will give them an introduction to occupational health and safety.

Training Methods:

Classroom presentation on multimedia, supplemented by videos, and flipchart discussions throughout the course. Course hand-outs, training records, evaluation forms are also provided and used.

Course Attendance: Maximum of 20 participants.

Duration: ½ day.

Book a place on one of our H&S Awareness Courses by emailing info@alliedtraining.ie or for further information please call us in Wexford on 05391 40655